Be a part of a time-honored theatre tradition! Donations raised from seat naming plaques are an important part of the funding needed to support the operation of the PAECs. Your inscription can be up to 2 lines of 20 characters each, plus the year of your pledge. Your generosity will greatly benefit present and future students and is certain to bring a smile every time you step inside our magnificent theater knowing that through your philanthropy, you are a partner in each and every production.

Use this donation to support a Performing Arts Booster Club of your Choice

60% to the Booster Club & 40% to the PAECs*

This is a unique opportunity for you to support both the Booster Club performing arts programs of your choice AND the operation of the PAEC at the same time, all while honoring your family, student, graduate, or as a tribute to a wonderful teacher or friend.

*You may designate 60% of your seat plaque donation go to a 501c3 non-profit LVUSD Booster Club that supports the Performing Arts, while 40% of your seat plaque donation will be held in an independent trust account at California Community Foundation (CCF) restricted solely to supporting the PAECs and LVUSD’s Performing Arts Programs (the LVUSD Beacon for the Arts Fund). CCF will distribute the funds to the designated organization, or you may remit payment of the 60% directly to Booster Club, with proof of your donation and their 501c3 non-profit status. Your seat contribution is tax deductible to the extent permitted by law.
